

UTANO YH 3 /KYOTO

Localisation: Japan

From: 2011-10-18

PROJECT CODE: CIEEJ22JPN

To : 2011-10-31

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Partner Description :

The Utano Youth Hostel in Kyoto encourages travelers to do enjoy their stay in Kyoto, which is also a great place to make new friends. Well-known for its casual, friendly atmosphere, Utano YH is the perfect stopping place for foreign travelers who love nature, people and Kyoto. The hostel was renewed in 2008 and awarded for the '

Work Description :

Volunteer will be in charge of various duties in routine work such as bed making, cleaning and providing meals (breakfast and supper). Volunteer will be expected to join preparation and operation of events which will be held in hostel, to support programs for children, and to accompany guests to local traditional events as an escorting staff.

Accommodations :

Volunteer will be accommodated in the hostel. Facilities and Fixtures: Beddings will be provided. There are a washer, a kitchen, a lavatory, a bathroom, staff bicycle and free Wi-Fi. Internet access is also available for JPY 100/20 min. Meals: Meals will be provided three times a day. (When you are out, it will be cancelled.)

Location :

Located in northwest Kyoto, Utano YH is surrounded by beautiful nature. There are many sightseeing spots nearby, such as Kinkakuji (Temple of the Golden Pavilion) and Ryoan-ji temple (both recognized as World Cultural Heritage Sites). It takes approximately 2.5 hours to get to Utano youth hostel from Kansai International Airport by train and bus URL：Kyoto youth hostel (ENGLISH): <http://yh-kyoto.or.jp/utano/> Kyoto City Web (ENGLISH): <http://www.city.kyoto.jp/koho/eng/index.html>

Requirements

Toiletries and clothing which is suitable for the service are necessary. Please bring home countries'