INTERNATIONAL YOUTH SUMMER CAMP

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

International youth summer camp Tunarica 2017 is a camp for young people in the natural campsite as an opportunity for personal development and educational experience. It is an environment from which young people can learn and raise awareness on volunteering and its benefits, notice the importance on the protecting of the nature environment, development of worldwide awareness and positive attitudes in terms of increased intercultural understanding and active participation. It gives space for exploring, using and increasing personal experience and knowledge, mutual understanding, tolerance, team building and civil dialogue among youth.

OBJECTIVES OF OUR CAMP:

- ✚ To engage youth in a diverse range of activities, such as community and environmental action that will support their social inclusion and integration;
- ✚ To provide space for young people to contribute the positive change in another country thus to stimulate active and responsible citizenship;
- ✚ To provide space for the youngsters to gain competences in leadership, communication, team work and organization skills;
- ✚ To develop and implement a variety of non formal educational activities in combination with outdoor activities;
- ✚ To build a complete wooden campsite to be used as summer educational place for youngsters.

This year we are proudly presenting our new camp: BUILDING CAMP! Apply and help us to build a dream camp for youngsters! ☺

BUILDING CAMP

Have you ever dreamt about being a champion? Altruistic service to others merits the highest praise. Multicolor days of various voluntary building activities will help you discover the benefits of this unique occupation.

Volunteers are needed to help the team of local and international youngsters to help with building developments at the campsite which will be later used as summer community education place for young people. As education is key to solving many of the root causes of different problems, the new built summer educational facilities will help to improve the future of other youngsters. Help us to make this happen!

If you like to get your hands dirty and do not mind working hard, then this is the right camp for you. Apart from the hard working, we have also prepared additional fun activities so you can really enjoy and relax during service.

Considering drinks there are no limits for it and participants can choose between water, coffee, tea or soft drinks all the time.

WEATHER

Istria is characterized by a special form of the Mediterranean climate in consequence of the Istrian geographical latitude. Istria attracts the tourists from the entire world with its natural characteristics, its rich cultural heritage, its beauty and tradition. On the Istrian coast the sun shine more than 2400 hours per year. Owing to the day's length and plenty of clear days throughout the summer it has the longest isolation with a daily average of 10 hours. Our sunrises and sunsets are like a painting masterpiece.

PARTICIPANTS

We are welcoming groups up to 25 participants, age 14 – 30. On every 7 participants 1 group leader is recommended. No special skills are necessary for this camp, but please note that this project is quite physical and volunteers should be in good physical condition. Also, they should be motivated, enthusiastic, flexible, and have a passion to work with and for local people. If you have any special construction skills it will be highly appreciated. Participants will be welcomed and hosted by youth association Alfa Albona team members, local and international youngsters who will lead them and help at any time. Before coming, we kindly ask the team leader from each group to have a Skype meeting with us in order to answer all possible questions.

ABOUT OUR ASSOCIATION

Youth association Alfa Albona was established in January 2011 with a purpose to promote interests and activities for youth by encouraging the development of their creativity, supporting them with acquisition of additional skills and knowledge, expanding volunteerism, solidarity and communication among young people. In order to accomplish these objectives the association organizes various workshops, activities, initiatives, lectures and public discussions regarding young people and also provides them with information and advisory service to help youth in finding their first job. Our main fields of the work are: youth information, mobility of young people and social entrepreneurship. We are really proud on all opportunities that we are providing to youngsters and that we have a high number of local and international volunteers that are helping us to make all our activities possible.

Udruga za mlade Alfa Albona

Have a nice journey – we are looking forward to host you and provide you an amazing time with us.
