Informations

Type de projets :

Ces dernières années, l'agriculture en ville est devenue une mode car de plus en plus de personnes se soucient de l'équilibre rural/urbain. C'est pourquoi, l'agriculture et l'environnement sont nos projets majeurs. De plus, nous avons un nouveau projet sur une île magnifique, lié au patrimoine culturel et à la communauté de pêcheurs à Hong Kong.

Logement et nourriture :

Dans tous les chantiers, des matelas et sacs de couchage sont nécessaires. Les conditions sont basiques, avec de l'électricité et de l'eau du robinet disponible. Les volontaires cuisineront et nettoieront à tour de rôle.

Aéroport :

L'aéroport international de Hong Kong est bien desservi et relié aux principales villes dans le monde.

Horaires :

Les volontaires travailleront 6 à 7 h par jour. Ils organiseront les jours de congé avec l'aide des volontaires locaux et des chefs.

Internet :

Internet n'est pas disponible, sur aucun projet. Une carte SIM peut être achetée partout.

Assurance :

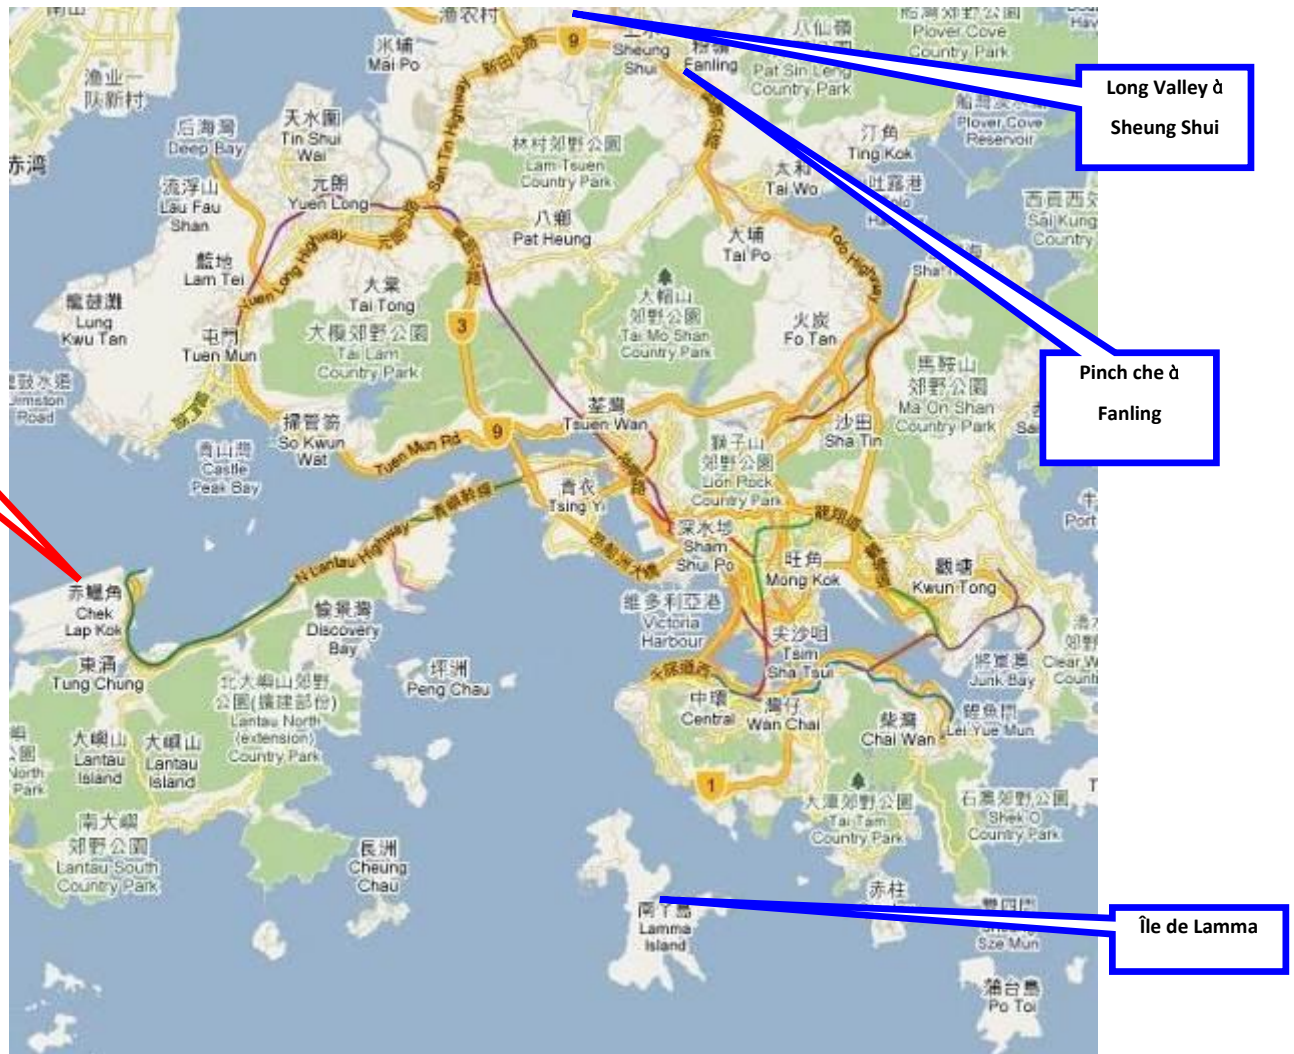

Les organisateurs locaux des chantiers internationaux de VolTra ne fourniront qu'une assurance limitée et basique en cas d'accident ou de blessure sur un chantier, lors de la période du chantier. C'est pourquoi les volontaires doivent se procurer une assurance voyage et maladie avant de rejoindre le projet.

Frais supplémentaires :

Aucun frais supplémentaire n'est demandé à nos chantiers internationaux, à part pour certains projets bilatéraux et moyen terme.

Nouveaux projets

HKVT16-01 Long Valley Rice Harvesting 02/07/2016 – 17/07/2016

Work	The project is co-organized by VolTra and The Conservancy Association (CA). CA, founded in 1968, is the non-government environmental organization with the longest history in Hong Kong. A nature conservation management project for Long Valley has been organized since 2005, which aims to conserve Long Valley's landscape and biodiversity through a series of active habitat and species management measures. Voluntary work: 1. Rice and crop harvesting work 2. Weed and apple snail removal work 3. Wildlife monitoring work
Accommodation	In the farming hut. The living environment is very simple and basic but in a peaceful rural living style. Sleeping bags and mat required.
Location	Long Valley is located at the northern urban edge of Hong Kong. With a total area of 150 hectares, it is the largest agricultural freshwater wetland in Hong Kong.
Terminal	Hong Kong International Airport
Remark	Very basic living condition in the nature. Outdoor physical work
Local Organizer	The Conservancy Association (CA) is dedicated to the protection of the environment and the conservation of natural and cultural heritage. CA's mission is to enhance the quality of life of both this and future generations, and to ensure that Hong Kong shoulders her regional and global environmental responsibilities. We achieve this by advocating appropriate policies, monitoring government action, promoting environmental education and taking a lead in community participation. Since the establishment of the Association, we have been devoted to monitoring government environmental policies and promoting environmental education.

HKVT16-03 On the Island: Appreciating the nature 22/12/2016 - 02/01/2017

Work	The project is co-organized by VolTra and Lamma Fisherfolk's Village. Hong Kong was a fishing village hundred years ago but fishery industry is now on the decline. Many of the traditional culture and history have been forgotten. Our aim for this project is mainly to educate the public the culture and history of fishery industry in Hong Kong, as well as enabling them to appreciate the natural beauty of the Island. Voluntary work: 1. Repairing the facilities on the floating dock 2. Participating in cultural exchange activities 3. Visiting elderly 4. Photo taking and sharing 5. Preparing exhibition and music events
Accommodation	In the hostel. The living environment is very simple and basic. Sleeping bags and mats are required.
Location	Lamma Island, Hong Kong
Terminal	Hong Kong International Airport
Remark	Volunteers with photography / music skills e.g. guitar, will have an advantage
Local Organizer	Situated at the beautiful Sok Kwu Wan on Lamma Island, Lamma Fisherfolk's Village is a showcase of the local fisherfolk culture and the history of fishery industry in Hong Kong. Occupying an area of over 20,000ft ² , the Village comprises authentic fishing junk, traditional dragon boats, an exhibition hall, themed folklore booths, fishing rafts and dwellings. Visitor can learn and appreciate the heritages and livings of the boat community of Hong Kong.

HKVT16-04 “Saving our homes” in Ping Che 12/08/2016 – 25/08/2016

Work	The project is co-organized by VolTra and Ta Kwu Ling/Ping Che Alliance for “Saving Our Home”. The aims of Ta Kwu Ling/Ping Che Alliance for “Saving Our Home” are to protect villagers’ home and culture and to conserve the environment. Currently, the government and the villages are in discussion on the North East New Territories New Development Areas Planning. Voluntary work: 1. Beautify or renovate of village road or houses 2. Rehabilitate agricultural land 3. Assist in community liaison
Accommodation	Workcampers are accommodated in village house of visitors’ centre. Sleeping bags and mats are needed.
Location	In contrast to the densely populated areas of Hong Kong Island and Kowloon, Ping Che is a sub-urban area characterised by natural scenery, charming small villages and stunning sunset. The place is also situated just next to Shenzhen, China.
Terminal	Hong Kong International Airport
Remark	There are a few pet dogs living in the visitors’ centre
Local Organizer	Founded in 2012, Ta Kwu Ling/Ping Che Alliance for “Saving Our Home” is a self-initiated alliance by Ping Che villagers in Hong Kong. The visitor’s centre is set up to let the public know more about the lives and works of villages in Ta Kwu Ling/Ping Che. In June 2013, Ping Che Village School Art Festival was co-organized by the alliance.
